Notes from the Principal

Panther Nation!

Happy Friday and happy end of the 1st 9-weeks! It's hard to believe that we are already one quarter of the way into the school year. Teachers are in the process of finalizing first quarter grades and they will be made available in Home Access Center on Wednesday, October 23rd. We will also mail home a copy of your child's grade card there after.

Next week will be in Washington DC with a large portion of our 8th grade students. We are extremely excited for this trip and all the sites we'll see. Parents, remember that we need your child here by 6:15AM on Monday morning with their packet belongings and a PACKED LUNCH!

If your child commutes to school via bike or scooter, please make sure you have a conversation with them about their safety, especially with how dark the mornings are. We have had that conversation with them here at school as well. ALSO, please make sure your child has a lock and is using their lock each day. Unfortunately, we are not exempt from people within our own community making the decision to swipe an unlocked item from the bike rack.

Have a great weekend and GO PANTHERS (and Guardians!),

Joel Assenheimer
Principal
