Notes from the Principal

Panther Nation!

Today we hosted our annual 'Multicultural Fair' during recess/lunch periods in the auxiliary gym. This day never disappoints and turns out to be one of the best days of the year. All students walked through the fair to learn and experience the different cultures of our students at HMS. Thank you to all of our students and families for making today so special for our school.

A reminder to all families that our first grading period has concluded and that Grade Cards are live and ready to be reviewed within Home Access Center. Please log in and click the 'Grades' button at the top of the page. If you have any questions, please contact the main office or your child's teacher.

Have a great weekend and GO PANTHERS,

Joel Assenheimer
Principal
